Jarrett R. Ransom, MBA

Jarrett is a community champion. She has lived her life through inspired actions and is constantly empowering other people to find their joy. She is a self-professed Nonprofit Nerd and has worked with nonprofits since 2009.

Jarrett isn't your typical speaker. She brings a casual, yet professional, approach to her work and is committed to helping individuals, companies, and nonprofits find the solutions needed to help build sustainable change. You can often find her with her training and coaching hat on as she teaches and empowers other leaders to ignite their passion for change.

Jarrett holds an MBA in business from the University of Phoenix and Certificate of Grant Writing from The Grantsmanship Center Institute. Awards include 40 Under 40, AZ Central Who's Next Nominee, Greater Phoenix Athena Nominee, AmAZing Women of Arizona recipient, and the Global Women's Summit Leadership Award.
